A Continuing Nursing Education programme on the theme “Empowering Nursing Professionals: Upgrading Managerial Skills” was successfully organized for faculty members, nursing staff, and students. The session was led by Mr. Ajitabh Alwin Thomas, Associate General Manager – Nursing, Max Healthcare, Head Office, New Delhi, an eminent leader with vast experience in nursing administration and hospital management. The session began with a warm welcome to the esteemed resource person and participants, aiming to enhance managerial competencies and equip nursing professionals with essential leadership and administrative skills.

He highlighted key areas such as effective communication, team building, delegation, conflict resolution, time management, decision-making, and quality assurance in patient care. He also shared practical insights and real-time experiences from corporate healthcare administration, helping participants understand the application of management principles in clinical practice. The session was interactive and enriching, motivating attendees to enhance their leadership potential and prepare for greater responsibilities in the nursing profession.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing sincere gratitude to speaker for his valuable guidance and for inspiring the participants to strive for excellence in nursing leadership and management. Overall, the CNE was a great success and contributed significantly to strengthening managerial competencies among nursing professionals.
